Please answer on the word document provided on Google Classroom if possible.

As we did with the pictures from 'The Journey,' what questions would you like to ask about the front cover to find out more information?

Come up with 5 questions.

Prediction: What do you think the story could be about?

Using the features we looked at last week, write a descriptive passage using the cover as your focus.

See if you can include:

*ISPACED starters (see the next sheet)

You don't have to do a sentence for each.

*The rule of 3 - linking three feelings, actions, events in one sentence to add interest.

*Adverbs and adjectives in your sentence.

*Long and short sentences.

*Use your senses, to say what you or the child are experiencing in the scene.

ISPACED

Remember, to add interest to our work we can use different sentence starters.

I - An 'ing' word. Use a verb with ing on the end to start the sentence

S - Simile. 'Like' / 'As'

P - Preposition

A - Adverb. Describes an action.

C - Connective - although, however, despite, instead

E - An 'ed' word

D - Dialogue (speech)

Examples of the rule of three:

As I stood there, (1) my heart started to pound, (2) my eyes widened and (3) a bead of sweat trickled down my cheek.

(1) Outside, cars stood frozen in time and (2) fumes filled the air, as (3) I stared at the rain falling from the sky.
