Newsletter No.17 – Tuesday 13th July 2021

Dear Parents and Carers,

Race for Life

We are so proud of our children who ran in support of Cancer Research UK, in this year's Race for Life by running a mile around our golden mile track last week. A very big well done to each and every one of you!

If you would still like to donate, and haven't had the chance to do so yet, please press on the link below, which will take you directly to the site.

Summer Reading Challenge 2021

This year's reading challenge is all about "wild world heroes" and is sponsored by the WWF charity. It runs from now to Saturday 18th September 2021. The children can join free at their local library or join online for puzzles, jokes and lots of fun. By taking part, each child can win a medal, plus have a chance to win a Samsung Galaxy tablet. Details have been handed out in class to bring home.

Wrens Class – Reading Books

Please can you make sure that any reading books are returned to school with your child by MONDAY 19TH JULY at the latest. Thank you.

School Photos – Year R & 6 Only

You should have received the photograph proofs, which will enable you to order pictures of your children on-line. A school photographer will be back in the Autumn term to take pictures of all the children in every year group.

Love Hope Justice

Rain & coats

Please ensure your child has a raincoat, as weather can be unpredictable even during the summer term. We try to take the children outside whenever we can.

read the road safety newsletter ahead of starting at secondary to support pupils in keeping themselves safe on new journeys.

Open mornings

It was lovely to see parents at the class exhibitions of learning last week. The children and staff have worked hard and we hope it gave you an insight into the creative topics that the children have been learning in school. Thank you also to parents who were able to complete some feedback for us.

Living the Values Awards

Children who have been recognised for living the school values of Love, Hope and Justice by demonstrating virtues such as respect, service, compassion, kindness, courage, and fairness.

A list of 2021-22 Hampshire school dates, including half term holidays, Christmas and Easter, can be found on the school website as well as on the Hampshire website

Attached is information from the school nursing team regarding an advice service for parents, which you may find useful especially over the holidays.

School day timings

For consistency until the end of term, we are going to continue with the staggered times for the start of the day and pupil collection arrangements. Please also see the attached letter to Headteachers regarding DfE guidance and the end of term. Information will follow shortly on details for September's arrangements.

New class afternoon

We have planned for the pupils to spend some time with their new class teachers in school this Wednesday during a transition session.

Road safety

We know that our year 6 pupils benefit enormously from road safety and Bike ability training, therefore we ask that pupils and parents
