1. Rationale:

Every pupil has the right to learn and every teacher has the right to teach in a safe environment conducive to high quality learning.

As a school we believe it is important to promote a caring and supportive learning environment which encourages positive behaviour choices and enables all members of the school community to feel secure and respected. The development of character, personal qualities and social skills and the fostering of socially acceptable behaviour are integral aspects of our school curriculum.

The school's behavioural expectations are made explicit through the Home-School agreement. Parent/carers, School staff and pupils agree to abide by our Home-School Agreement on taking up a place at our school.

2. Our behaviour policy is underpinned by our ethos and Christian values. At Preston Candover we aspire for all of our children to be happy, caring individuals with a life-long love of learning. The school's core values of Love, Hope and Justice focus us as an inclusive community on being the best that we can be.

We encourage our pupils to:

- Be kind and thoughtful in actions and in words.
- Take responsibility for their choices and make amends when they make mistakes.
- Behave with fairness, apologise with sincerity, and to forgive others for mistakes.
- Treat others as they would want to be treated
- Strive to do their best in everything they do.

3. Aims and expectations

The aim of this policy is to enable a consistent approach to behaviour management with clear expectations. It explains roles and responsibilities and lists rewards and consequences for behaviour. The policy is designed to promote good behaviour, not merely deter anti-social behaviour.

The aims we have for all pupils are:

- To develop self-respect, value others and the environment.
- To develop social and communication skills enabling full participation and a positive contribution to society.
- To take responsibility for one's own actions and develop self-discipline.

We have high expectations of the way in which all members of the school community behave towards one another. These are based on agreed rights.

Children have:

- A right to feel safe.
- A right to learn, work and play, in a safe environment.
- A right to be treated fairly and with respect.
- A right to a good education.

Teachers have:

- A right to teach.
- A right to be treated with respect.

- A right to feel safe.

Parents have:

- A right to know their child is safe.
- A right for their child to have a good education.
- A right to have their child treated with respect.

All staff have:

- A right to be treated with respect in a safe environment.

Parents, staff, governors and pupils have high expectations of each other at Preston Candover CE Primary School. We share high expectations for pupils' personal, social and academic progress.

Specifically this means:

- Showing respect - being helpful, respecting the property of others, caring for their own belongings, being thoughtful and considerate, letting others enjoy school, treating adults in a friendly, polite and respectful way.
- Behaving in a disciplined way - responding appropriately to instructions, showing self-control and self-discipline, behaving in a quiet and orderly way within the school, behaving in the playground in a safe, sensible and controlled manner, being co-operative and attentive in class.
- Observing good manners - being respectful, polite and courteous, saying please and thank you.
- Being motivated - understanding and reacting to expectations, working diligently, being responsible and enthusiastic and assured of self-worth.
- Being honest in words and actions.
- Making the most of their learning opportunities at school and allowing others to do the same.

We expect parents to support school and their child by:

- Equipping their children appropriately for school.
- Supporting the school's policy on behaviour.
- Ensuring their children attend school regularly and punctually.
- Making sure their children obey the code of conduct before school starts and at the end of the school day whilst in their care.
- Informing the school when their children show differences in behaviour, or behave unusually at home.
- Talking regularly to the teacher about their child.
- Encouraging their children and show interest in their achievements and behaviour in school.

We expect staff to:

- Implement an agreed approach to the rewarding of good behaviour.
- Deal with problems arising from unsatisfactory relationships between children, in a sensitive and proportionate manner.
- Apply developmentally/age appropriate sanctions in response to unacceptable behaviour, explaining to the children.
- Maintain good organisation, systems and discipline within the classroom.
- Motivate the children to do well.
- Provide interesting and appropriately challenging tasks in the classroom.
- Inform parents (and DSLs) of any changes in their child's behaviour at an early stage.
- Be available to discuss children's progress at the soonest mutually convenient time.
- Target the behaviour and never the child.

4. Each class will discuss and create a Class Mission based on an interpretation of the school Code below.

- Show respect – respecting others, respecting property of others, caring for their own belongings, being kind and considerate, letting others enjoy school, treating others in a polite and respectful way
- Be responsible – through responding with respect to authority as defined in British Values, responding appropriately to instructions, showing self-control, self-discipline, initiative and being helpful
- Stay Safe - behaving in a quiet and orderly way within the school, behaving in the playground in a safe, sensible and controlled manner, being co-operative and attentive in class

5. Our Behaviour Curriculum:

We understand that building relationships, routines and rules ensure children are safe - physically and emotionally. Being well-behaved is a combination of skills, habits, values and knowledge. These can (and should) be taught, and form part of our curriculum, both formal and informal. Our school values and leadership habits are a fundamental part of how we develop good behaviours.

Routines form the foundation of good behaviour. Routines are the building blocks of the classroom culture and are taught by modelling, practice, revision, correction and review. Routines are used to form good habits and norms. By providing our children with clear sequences of modelled behaviour it becomes easier for them to decide HOW to behave.

6. Positive Behaviour Approach

We are committed to the development of a positive environment in which praise, kindness and respect is a fundamental feature.

We encourage good behaviour by:

- Making positive remarks about everyday acts of consideration.
- Encouraging older children to look after younger ones.
- Encouraging 'acts of service' to our school and wider community.
- Devoting teaching time to issues of mutual respect.
- Drawing good behaviour to the attention of parent.
- Giving rewards.
- Reminding children to consider what is in their circle of control (Leader in Me)
- Developing good role models and giving these a high profile through the school (prefects; peer mentors; monitors).

7. Strategies that may be used to promote good behaviour:

- 3-2-1- Eyes on me and may include '3-2-1-Stop'; in our school this means:
  - silent voices
  - empty hands
  - eyes on the speaker
- Use signals to encourage attention and focus e.g. hand signals/ clapping patterns/ songs.
- Verbal reminders that are anonymous (e.g. 'We are just waiting for 3 children to...').
- Positive praise for children who are displaying behaviour looked for (e.g. 'Well done X and X. I can see you are.....').
- Proximal praise
- Follow up the stated course of action.

- Keeping your tone of voice low when addressing misbehaviour
- Helping the child to 'save face' in front of others to avoid escalation of poor behaviour e.g. framing the desired behaviour/ consequence as a choice: e.g. You can decide to do X or Y- I am going to come back in 2 minutes so you can tell me your choice.
  - Time out (5 minutes to think about behaviour) and then opportunity to make amends.
  - The opportunity to go on green card following name on red card if the desired behaviour is then shown (over a reasonable period).

8. Rewards:

We aim to be positive in our approach and to notice and reward good behaviour. A range of rewards will be used to promote good behaviour. The children are made aware of the rewards system in their class and in the school as a whole.

Rewards include:

- Name on green card, House points, Learning powers/7 Habits and Values awards
- Extra responsibilities in the classroom and school e.g. leadership roles
- Special privileges linked to class earning points over the term e.g. extra playtime/activity
- Sharing achievements with parents.
- Sharing achievements with Headteacher who may give a Headteacher Award
- Specific verbal rewards: "Well done for...", 'You made a good choice by...', expressions from an adult.

Other positive recognition:

- Non-verbal signs of approval (smile, etc.)
- Sharing excellent learning with Headteacher who may give a Headteacher award
- Progress and excellence prizes
- Annual award for "Care and courtesy"

Young children, by nature, can be egocentric when they are very young. Part of child development and learning during the primary school phase is learning about co-operation and getting along with others. Our school values provide a strong foundation for this learning. All human beings will make mistakes and hurt other people at times. Children are encouraged to make amends and put right what has gone wrong, as part of any sanction, and learn to take responsibility for their words and actions.

In helping children to learn about the effect that words and actions can have on relationships with others, we may use the analogy of an 'Emotional Bank account' to help the children understand how we build secure relationships with others by making deposits, how relationships can be damaged if we make withdrawals (and can be mended).

We may also use visuals with some children and restorative talk cards to assist them. We may adjust our routines where appropriate and reasonable to meet the specific needs of some pupils.

9. A system of house points operates across the school for general good behaviour and awards certificates for Learning Powers/ Leadership Habits and Living the Values which are presented by the Headteacher at the end of Monday's Celebration Collective Worship.

Excellent attendance is also rewarded through certificates at the end of the year.

10. Self-Regulation:

We believe that learning to manage our emotions and distractions around us are part of developing our own sense of self-worth and discipline. At Preston Candover, we teach the children to recognise that all human beings will experience a range of feelings and emotions that are all a natural part of being.

Key strategies are taught to all children so that they are able to select and apply these when they feel the need to. For some children who find it much more difficult to self-regulate their emotions and behaviour, e.g. an individual self-regulation chart may be developed with them, and they will be taught to identify and use strategies to help them calm in a structured way.

All classrooms MUST display the Class Mission, the Green and Red chart, School Core Values and 7 Habits Leadership trees.

Procedure and Consequences for negative behaviour

Incident steps and consequences:

- 1st. Name on red card on table (Adult explains why).
- 2nd. Mark against name – 5 mins time out in class.
- 3rd. Sanction or time out – 10 mins time out with an LSA or in another class (pupil should be accompanied and learning provided).
- 4th. Class teacher liaises with SLT. Child may phone home to explain actions.
- 5th. For serious incidents, the Headteacher, Inclusion leader or Assistant Head is involved along with teacher. A parent meeting will be arranged.

The Headteacher is involved as a final step or in the case of a serious incident.
Serious incident:– remove child from the classroom.

According to the severity of the incident, the steps above may be by-passed.
On certain occasions, when appropriate, a child may be asked to write an account and consider what alternative action they could have taken.

Each child should start each day with a clean slate

11. Sanctions

Despite positive responses as a means to encouraging good behaviour, it may be necessary to employ a number of sanctions to correct behaviour choices; ensuring a safe and positive learning environment. We believe that children feel more secure if they know where the boundaries of acceptable behaviour lie and what sanctions will be used if they overstep the mark. We believe that appropriate sanctions should be applied fairly and calmly. The smallest possible sanction that is effective will always be used. Children need to know why they are being given a consequence and need to be given the opportunity to make amends and take restorative action.

Sanctions should be applied in a way that maintains self-respect. Whole group sanctions should be avoided where possible. Sanctions should be applied as soon as possible after the behaviour incident. As with matters relating to rewards, consistency is vital and should be appropriate to each individual situation.

This policy is designed to empower both teaching and support staff in our mutual desire to create a safe, secure, just and happy learning environment.

When dealing with all forms of inappropriate behaviour, teachers should follow these three overriding rules:

- Stay calm – children should be dealt with calmly and firmly referring to what the action is and why the action is being taken.
- Logical consequence – A logical consequence is a sanction that should “fit” the offence. It generally has two steps. The first step is to stop the misbehaviour. The second step is to provide an action that recalls children to the rules, reinstates the limits, teaches alternative behaviours and allows the child to make amends.
- Fresh Start – although persistent or serious misbehaviour needs recording, every child must feel that every day is a fresh start. It is imperative that any sanction is applied fairly and the consequences fully explained. Various strategies may be used to help pupils to understand how to improve their behaviour following a sanction, for example:
  - A discussion about the impact of their actions e.g. what could be done better in the future.
  - A phone call with parents or the Virtual School head.
  - Inquiries into the pupil’s conduct with staff involved.
  - Inquiries into the circumstances outside of school, including home by the DSL or DDSL.
  - Considering whether the support for behaviour management being provided remains appropriate.

ABCC charts may be used by teachers for some pupils if deemed appropriate by the Inclusion leader.

If the class/school rules/expectations are broken the following sanctions may be taken as per Appendix 2.

12. Responding to poor behaviour (based on DFE guidelines)

Teachers are required to discipline pupils when conduct falls below expected standards.

To be lawful, the response (including detentions) must satisfy the following three conditions:

- The decision to punish a pupil must be made by a paid member of school staff or a member of staff authorised by the Headteacher.
- The decision to punish the pupil and the punishment itself must be made on the school premises or while the pupil is under the charge of the member of staff.
- It must not breach any other legislation (in respect of disability, Special Educational Needs, race and other equalities and human rights) and it must be reasonable in all the circumstances.

Extremely poor behaviour must be reported to the SLT and/or Headteacher immediately. A phone call will be made to the parents (or a meeting with parents may be arranged) to discuss the concerns. For instances of serious unacceptable behaviour, a child may spend a period of time with another class or Learning Support Assistant where he/she will be able to continue with their learning.

A punishment must be reasonable and proportionate to the circumstances. Account must be taken of the pupil’s age, any special educational needs or disability they may have, and any religious requirements affecting them (section 91 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006).

For continued unacceptable behaviour or in case of serious verbal or physical violence, a child may be excluded from school. This could take the form of a suspension, or on rare occasions, may take the form of a permanent exclusion (see below).

13. Children with specific needs:

Children who have particular needs or difficulties may have additional support and specific behaviour strategies/plans or as part of their Personal Plan to encourage and develop good behaviour. This will however, still sit within our whole school guidelines.

14. Safeguarding:

Staff will consider whether the behaviour under review gives cause to suspect that a child is suffering, or is likely to suffer, significant harm. Where this may be the case, school staff will follow the school's safeguarding policy and involve a DSL.

15. Suspension and Permanent Exclusion:

Our aim is to avoid permanent exclusion and we will work with the support of the other agencies and the Local Education Authority to explore alternatives to this outcome. This may involve the use of Alternative Provision and Managed Moves if these are acceptable to parents. However, we reserve the right to permanently exclude in cases where alternatives have been exhausted or in cases of extreme behaviours.

Exclusion will be used following careful consideration of the evidence gathered and evaluation of other alternative approaches.

Only the Head teacher has the power to exclude a child from school. The Headteacher may exclude a pupil for one or more periods, for up to 45 days in any one school year. The Headteacher may also exclude a pupil permanently.

The decision to exclude a child (suspension or permanent) is taken when the child:

1. Is in response to serious breaches or persistent breaches, of the school's behaviour policy; and
2. Where allowing the pupils to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of the pupil or others in the school;
3. 3. After a range of alternative strategies have been tried (See Sanctions).

If the Headteacher suspends or excludes a child, parents are informed immediately, giving reasons for the suspension or exclusion. At the same time, the Headteacher makes it clear to the parents that they can appeal against the decision to the governing body. The school informs the parents how to make any such appeal.

Before deciding to exclude, the Headteacher should:

1. Consider all the relevant facts and firm evidence.
2. Allow the pupil to give their version of events.
3. Check whether an incident appeared to be provoked by racial or sexual harassment.
4. Consult others if necessary.
5. Keep detailed notes at all stages.

Exclusion can be:

1. Suspension – Arrangements for setting and marking of work must be made.
2. Lunchtime Suspension – This should be normally no more than 5 School days and must include arrangements for children on Free School Meals.
3. Suspensions from School – This can be up to 45 days in a School year. A suspension does not have to be for a continuous period.

16. Procedures for Suspending or Excluding a Pupil:

For all suspensions or exclusions:

1. Parents must be telephoned on the same day.
2. The relevant letter must be sent to the parents within 24 hours.
3. The relevant letter with form EX1 must be sent to children's services, Clerk to Governors' Discipline Committee, Local Authority and Chair of Governors.

4. Exclusions over 5 days automatically require a Governing Body Disciplinary Committee meeting.

Re-integration:

A process of planned support and progress reviews is in place for all children following exclusion. The Headteacher informs the Local Authority (LA) and the governing body about any permanent exclusion, and about any suspensions beyond five days in any one term. The governing body itself cannot either exclude a child or extend the exclusion period made by the Headteacher.

The governing body has a discipline committee whose role is set out in strict guidelines whenever a child is excluded from school. The discipline committee will form to consider a permanent exclusion and have the power to either uphold the Headteacher's decision or to overturn it based on the evidence provided to them.

The Governing Body Discipline Committee:

1. Suspensions of less than 6 days – a meeting will be convened if parents request it.
2. Suspensions between 6 and 15 days – the Clerk must organise a meeting between day 6 & day 15.
3. Suspensions of over 15 days – the Clerk must organise a meeting between day 6 and day 15.
4. Suspensions of more than 1 in a term with the total number of days exceeding 6 – a meeting must be organised.

17. Recording, Monitoring and Evaluating Behaviour:

A termly report is produced highlighting the behaviours and an action plan is put in place to improve re-occurring behaviours and reduce the number of incidents.

To produce such a report the following documents and processes are carried out:

- Monitoring of logs. From this data we are able to identify trends and address any concerns. A summary of this is collated annually.
- Incident logs are also used to record any behaviour that is unacceptable & how it was dealt with.

18. Lunchtime Misbehaviour:

- The lunchtime members of staff will inform the class teacher of any incidents
An immediate sanction of time out will be given but the class teacher will be informed so that they have the full picture of any difficulties or issues.

19. Bullying:

In discussions for Anti-Bullying Week, Peer Mentors lead an assembly on Anti-bullying. School Councillors and Peer Mentors wanted to include the STOP messages:

Several	Start
Times	Telling
On	Other
Purpose	People

We finalised a revised definition:

'Bullying is when you hurt someone, physically or emotionally, several times on purpose.'

'Bullying is any behaviour that makes someone feel upset, uncomfortable or unsafe. This is usually deliberate and repetitive and can take many forms such as verbal, indirect and physical' (Source: The Diana Award).

There is sometimes be misunderstanding about the meaning of the term 'bullying'. One-off incidents, whilst potentially very serious and which must always be dealt with, do not fall within the definition of 'bullying'. We work hard with pupils to clarify the difference between bullying and "friendship friction".

Types of bullying There are various types of bullying, but most have three things in common:

- It is deliberately hurtful behaviour.
- It is repeated over time.
- There is an imbalance of power, which makes it hard for those being bullied to defend themselves.

Bullying can be:

- Physical – e.g. hitting, kicking, taking belongings.
- Verbal – e.g. name calling, insulting, racist, homophobic, sexist remarks, comments about disabilities.
- Indirect – e.g. spreading malicious rumours, excluding individuals from social groups, family disagreements brought into school, encouraging others to engage in rule-breaking or bullying acts.
- Cyber – e.g. use of email, social networking sites, mobile phone messaging to spread rumours, make malicious comments.

Each case of bullying will be examined and its severity considered when deciding upon the most appropriate response. Ideally, restorative practices should be employed with reconciliation achieved. Parents/carers of bullies will be informed of an incident by the Class teacher, Inclusion leader or Assistant Head.

Procedures for reporting bullying incidents

You can report bullying at Preston Candover:

- Directly to a member of staff
- Indirectly or anonymously in class worry boxes and box in the library

Suspected bullying should be reported to the EY/Key Stage 1 leader for KS1 pupils, Inclusion leader or Assistant Head for KS2 pupils and to the Headteacher for investigation. Details will be logged to help build a picture of behavioural patterns in school e.g. who, where, when alleged incidents occur.

In cases of racist bullying or racist incidents, an additional written record will be completed and submitted to the Local Authority. All bullying is unacceptable. However, the school recognises that many pupils displaying anti-social behaviour are, themselves, impacted. We will seek to support them to understand the consequences of their actions and to change their behaviour. Support will always be put in place for victims of bullying. This will be bespoke to the pupil, their age, maturity and circumstances.

20. Use of Reasonable force (from DfE Use of Force Guidelines 2012):

If a child violently attacks another child or adult and becomes a danger either to him / herself or others and does not respond to requests to calm down, then physical restraint may be necessary. The child should be removed from the situation as soon as possible and a member of SLT notified immediately.

Immediate action will be taken to involve parents. A Serious Incident/Physical Restraint form must be completed and the situation discussed with the Head. If any member of staff has been injured / assaulted in the process of physically restraining a child, the correct documentation must be completed as soon as possible. The Senior Leadership Team will work with the member of staff and parents to devise an action plan to meet the child's needs. This may include the involvement of other agencies. Please see 'Physical Intervention and Restraint Policy' for further guidance.

21. Mobile phones and other electronic devices in school

Pupils should not have mobile phones or any other electronic device, including headphones and smartwatches and any other personal electronic devices with internet connectivity in school.

Any device that has the same/ similar functionality as a mobile phone (for example a smart watch), will have the same rules applied to it as a mobile phone. If a child brings these to school they MUST be handed into their class teacher when they arrive in the classroom, and they will be returned to them at the end of the school day. We accept no liability for any such items that are lost or damaged.

22. Searching and confiscation of property:

Teachers and Support Staff can confiscate pupils' property. In the case of illegal items these will be passed onto the police. Items such as alcohol, tobacco products and other school banned objects will be passed onto a member of Senior Leadership Team to be disposed of.

Prohibited items include knives and weapons, alcohol, tobacco and tobacco-related products, illegal drugs, prescription medicine belonging to someone else, stolen items, fireworks, pornographic images, any article that has been or is likely to be used to commit an offence, cause personal injury or damage to property. These will be confiscated and not returned and the police may be informed. The school also bans items that are age-related for over 18s e.g. caffeine drinks and electronic cigarettes, substances regarded as legal highs. These will be confiscated and not returned. In the event that a pupil is suspected to be in possession of a prohibited, banned or illegal item then the school reserves the right to search them, their possessions (in accordance with the DFE guidance on screening, searching and confiscation).

To safeguard staff and pupils, any search will take place with more than one member of staff present, ideally at least one member of staff will be from the Senior Leadership Team and reflect the gender of the pupil.

This may not always be possible and the school reserves the right to conduct the search if there is felt to be a risk to staff, pupils or members of the community by not conducting the search. Confiscated items will be handed into reception for safe keeping. They may be collected at the end of the school day by the pupil if appropriate. If there is a repeat of the incident, the item will be kept until parents/carers can collect from reception. This includes mobile phones and smart devices.

Staff can confiscate any item that disrupts and disturbs the learning process from a pupil at their discretion.

Other specific unacceptable behaviours

23. Aggression, intimidation, harassment and violence:

Aggressive, intimidating or violent behaviour is unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

- Child on child sexual harassment is unwanted conduct of a sexual nature that can occur online and offline.

Sexual harassment is likely to:

To violate a child's dignity, and/or make them feel intimidated, degraded or humiliated and/or to create a hostile, offensive or sexualised environment.

- We will use the Brooks Sexual Behaviours Traffic Light System to differentiate between normal child development and curiosity, and behaviour that is more concerning. However, the concept of 'Consent' will always be emphasised.
- An incident does not need to result in physical harm for it to instigate serious consequences. Each incident will be investigated and where necessary action will be taken.
- Where there is violence, or where there is an attack on another pupil, exclusion may be used. The length of exclusion will vary according to the severity of the incident. Second or subsequent incidents will attract longer periods of suspension. Persistent offenders may face permanent exclusion.
- Verbal, physical threats or intimidation against staff will be investigated and action will be taken in the same way as above. Physical violence towards staff will result in exclusion. Depending on the severity of the situation verbal, physical threats or intimidation against staff may result in permanent exclusion.

24. Weapons and dangerous items:

- Pupils who bring guns, knives, laser pens, other weapons and dangerous items to school may be suspended or excluded dependent on the nature of the offence. The police will normally be informed in cases where offensive weapons have been found. Very serious incidents will result in a permanent exclusion.

25. Drugs:

- The possession or consumption of illegal drugs will result in a suspension as a minimum whilst an investigation takes place. The length of exclusion will be dependent on the nature of the incident. The police will be informed in all cases where drugs have been found.
- Supplying drugs will result in permanent exclusion.

26. Damage to school fabric and furniture:

- Where damage is accidental, no charge will be made.
- Where damage is as a result of silly behaviour, parents/carers will be informed and a contribution to the cost of replacement may be requested, or the child may be asked to make amends by putting it right e.g. being supervised in their own time to make repairs.

Discriminatory Incidents (e.g. targeting race, gender, sexuality or disability):

All incidents of discrimination are investigated and treated seriously.

Before any decision on suspension or exclusion is reached, a thorough investigation will take place.

All those involved in the incident will be interviewed.

Statements will be gathered from witnesses where appropriate.

All statements and evidence, will be collated by the Headteacher.

All incidents are recorded and dealt with promptly in line with the School Behaviour Policy and the LA Policy.

The curriculum for R.S.H.E., RE and Collective Worship is designed to foster appropriate and responsible behaviour and to deter and alter offensive behaviour.

Derogatory comments about race, gender, sexuality or disability are unacceptable. If pupils are heard using derogatory language, they will be challenged and told that it is unacceptable.

27. Discrimination incidents are recorded separately in an Incident Log. These are reported to the Local Authority.

28. Child-on-Child abuse Child-on-Child abuse is any form of physical, sexual, emotional and financial abuse, and coercive control exercised between children, and within children's relationships (both intimate and nonintimate), friendships, and wider peer associations.

Online child-on-child abuse is any form of child-on-child abuse with a digital element, for example, sexting, online abuse, coercion and exploitation, child-on-child grooming, threatening language delivered via online means, the distribution of sexualised content and harassment. Incidents will be dealt with in line with our Behaviour Policy, Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy, as appropriate.

29. Pastoral Support Programmes such as ELSA and THRIVE are school based interventions to help individual pupils to better manage their behaviour. They are overseen by the Inclusion Leader and involves the identification of precise and realistic behavioural outcomes for particular children with on-going needs.

The SLT/ Inclusion Leader will liaise with parents and external agencies as necessary.

30. Roles:

The Role of our Pupil Leaders:

Children with leadership responsibilities wear special badges that identify them throughout the school. As part of their duties, they play a major part in deciding on activities that spread a positive message around the school and play an important role in implementing the rules and being positive role models to our younger children.

The Role of Parents:

Parents have a vital role to play in their children's education. It is very important that parents support their child's learning and co-operate with the school. We are very conscious of the importance of having strong links with parents and good communication between home and school. Thus, the school works collaboratively with parents, so children receive consistent messages about how to behave at home and at school. We expect parents to behave in a reasonable and civilised manner towards all school staff.

Incidents of verbal or physical aggression to staff by parents/guardians/carers of children in the school will be reported immediately to the Headteacher who will take appropriate action. If the school has to use reasonable sanctions for a child's behaviour, parents should support the actions of the school.

If parents have any concern about the way that their child has been treated, they should initially contact the class teacher. The Headteacher may then be involved and, if the concern remains, parents can contact the school governors. If these discussions cannot resolve the problem, a formal complaint can be implemented.

The Role of Non-teaching Staff:

All school staff have a responsibility to uphold the behaviour policy.

Support staff should ensure that children move sensibly and quietly through the school at all times helping to ensure a calm atmosphere in the corridors, classrooms and other school areas. Children should be made aware that rough play and potentially dangerous behaviour in the playground is unacceptable.

Lunchtime Supervisors are in close touch with the class teachers and communicate with them about incidents of unacceptable behaviour at lunchtime.

The role of Senior Leaders, Class Teachers and Support Staff

Good classroom systems and organisation is a key to good behaviour and the provision of a high quality curriculum through interesting and challenging activities influences behaviour.

Teachers at Preston Candover are positive and enthusiastic and have high expectations of learning and behaviour. They foster a sense of self-esteem in all children, linked with encouraging an understanding of the needs of others. All school staff facilitate a calm, positive and purposeful atmosphere around the school.

Staff also contribute to the open door policy for parents and carers. They deal with parental concerns in a respectful and professional manner, involving senior staff as appropriate. Teachers and Support Staff in turn expect that parents will behave in a reasonable manner towards them, as professionals, and that issues will be dealt in an atmosphere of trust and mutual respect.

It is the responsibility of the class teacher to ensure that the Class Expectations are enforced in their class, and that their class behaves in a responsible manner during lesson time.

Role of the Head teacher

It is the responsibility of the Headteacher to implement the school behaviour policy consistently throughout the school, and to report to governors, when requested, on the effectiveness of the policy. It is also the responsibility of the Headteacher to ensure the health, safety and welfare of all children in the school.

The Headteacher supports the staff by implementing the policy, by setting the standards of behaviour, and by supporting staff in the implementation of the policy. The Headteacher keeps records of all reported serious incidents of misbehaviour and has the responsibility for giving suspensions and exclusions to individual children for serious acts of misbehaviour. For repeated or very serious acts of anti-social behaviour, the Headteacher may permanently exclude a child.

Role of the Governors

The governing body has the responsibility of setting down general guidelines on standards of discipline and behaviour, and of reviewing their effectiveness. The governors support the Headteacher in carrying out these guidelines. The Head has the day-to-day authority to implement the school behaviour and discipline policy, but governors may give advice to the Head about particular disciplinary issues. The Head must take this into account when making decisions about matters of behaviour.

31. Mutual Staff Support and Staff Training:

The school is committed to providing the necessary Continual Professional Development for all members of staff to support the delivery of our key objectives. This may take several forms, including:

- External Behaviour Management courses
- Internal CPD sessions with behaviour experts or online • Time spent considering strategies with colleagues or a Behaviour Consultant e.g. PBS, Educational Psychologist
- Weekly briefings (Whole School briefing, Phase/ Staff meetings)
- Observation of other practitioners. Every member of staff will from time to time find themselves in circumstances in which they are challenged by the behaviour of a pupil or pupils. Staff are encouraged to discuss both formally and informally their experiences of dealing with challenging behaviour in order that an ethos of collective support towards colleagues is maintained within the school.

32. Behaviour out of School

What the law allows:

A teacher may discipline a pupil for any misbehaviour when the child is:

- Taking part in any school organised activity
- Travelling to or from school
- Wearing school uniform
- In some way identifiable as a pupil at the school

Or misbehaving at any time in a way that:

- Could have repercussions for the orderly running of the school
- Poses a threat to another pupil or member of the public
- Could adversely affect the reputation of the school Pupils on school trips and visits, and on the way to and from school, are governed by the school's expectations for behaviour policy. It is expected that pupils behave well on trips and visits and at all times when representing the school. Poor behaviour on the way to and from school is not acceptable and will result in sanctions being put in place. If pupils' behaviour risks the safety of others then, dependent on the incident, further sanction could apply.

The school will investigate any misbehaviour that is reported to them by a third party or witnessed by a member of staff if the pupil is in school uniform or bringing the school into disrepute. The sanctions imposed under these circumstances will be in accordance with those covered in this policy for behaviour during the school day. If misbehaviour is reported to the school whilst not on a school activity or in school uniform this will be reported to the relevant authorities and/or parents/carers if it is of a safeguarding nature.

Legislation and statutory requirements:

This policy is written in compliance with the equal opportunities policy and in line with the following:

- DfE Behaviour in Schools - Advice for Headteachers and school staff advice (Behaviour Advice) (1 September 2022). This policy is based on advice from the Department for Education (DfE) on:
- Behaviour and discipline in schools
- Searching, screening and confiscation at school
- The Equality Act 2010 and the school's Single Equality Policy and Scheme
- Use of reasonable force in schools
- Supporting pupils with medical conditions at school

It is also based on the special educational needs and disability (SEND) code of practice. In addition, this policy is based on:

- Section 175 of the Education Act 2002, which outlines a school's duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of its pupils

- Sections 88-94 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006, which require schools to regulate pupils' behaviour and publish a behaviour policy and written statement of behaviour principles, and give schools the authority to confiscate pupils' property

33. Appendix 1:

Whole school Self- Regulation Toolkit: Advice

Green Stage:

While children are in the green stage they are functioning from their cortex- they can think ahead and reason. We can help them to stay in the green stage by threading regulating exercises throughout the day in between cognitive tasks.

Green stage self- regulation ideas:

- Movement exercises e.g. running or marching on the spot, star jumps, balancing on one leg, play copy me and Simon says.
- Rhythmic activities e.g. tapping a pattern on a desk, create a clapping or stomping pattern to copy.
- Singing
- ABC around the room- spot things around the room can you get all the way through the alphabet?
- Practise positive self-talk i.e. affirmations

Amber Stage:

In the amber stage you can increase the frequency of strategies from the green stage as well as adding some of the following strategies.

Amber stage self- regulation ideas:

- Butterfly hug: direct the child to cross their arms in front of them, holding their left shoulder with the right hand and their right shoulder with their left hand. Direct the child to breath in and out for a few short breaths. Then ask the child to pretend their hands are butterfly wings, and gently flap them against their shoulders.
- Self- cuddle
- Drinking water through a straw to calm and regulate
- Eat something crunchy
- Count the colours- 'How many yellow things can you see?'
- Breathing exercises
- Use playdough to squash and squeeze
- Resistance bands on chair legs
- Use small bags of lego (7-10 pieces) allow a few minutes to build
- Calming colouring/ drawing
- Popping bubble wrap

- Eye movement exercises- Directing the child to follow the movement of an object with their eyes, which helps activate different parts of the brain and supports a child to calm down.
- Grounding exercises, i.e. 'Name 5 things you can see, 4 things you can hear, 3 things you can touch , 2 things you can smell and 1 thing I don't know about you.'

Red Stage:

In the red stage the child is no longer operating from the thinking cortex but from their limbic brain. This is the emotional part of the brain which is focussed on survival- fight, flight, freeze, flop. They are only aware of the next 3 seconds.

Red stage self- regulation ideas:

- Reduce words used and be silent
- Planned ignoring where possible
- Use of distraction
- Humour
- Pause between sentences to allow child to process things
- Do not respond to insults
- Do not warn about consequences
- Stands sideways to look less threatening
- Avoid folding arms
- Keep voice low and calm
- Be empathetic 'I hear you', 'I'm here with you'
- Listen and wait
- Change of adult where possible
- Moving to a quieter space
- If safe, give the child an opportunity to run outside
- Validate feelings
- Identify the child's feelings, wants and needs... 'I wonder if you are feeling'

Blue Stage:

In the blue stage we need to support the child to settle and regulate. We need to be careful that our actions do not escalate situations again.

Blue stage self- regulation ideas:

Remember: Regulate, Relate and Reason

Regulate: Concentrates on de- escalation- this all relates to the red stage

Relate: Stay calm with the child and use as few words as possible. Sit and do something you know the child enjoys such as: reading, colouring or Lego. Doing this calmly and quietly can help them to regulate. Allow the child to join in in their own time and keep words to a minimum.

Reason: When you feel the child is regulated and has had long enough at the relating stage, you can talk about what happened. Keep the discussion short and to the point e.g. 'We use safe hands.'

Behaviour report to be completed each section of the day and shared with parents at the end of each day.
A meeting will happen regularly with the class teacher, Inclusion leader and parents. In the meeting we will discuss behaviour, the progress made and the strategies that could help in the future

36. Appendix 4

Helpful tips for managing behaviour, adapted from PBS service staff CPD

Thank You not Please...

“Childs Name.....Instruction.....Thank You”

Say please too often and you may sound like you are pleading!

Try “name ... instruction ... thanks”

[Holly is fiddling with her toy] “Holly, in your pocket, thank you”

[Billy has arrived wearing a hat] “Billy, hat off, thank you”

[Alfie is calling out] “Hand up and wait, thank you”

The thank you implies you expect the child to comply.

Nice and Nice

- [Child reluctant to start task] “Are you going to use the red or the blue pencil?”
- “Where are you going to sit, on the blue table or in the quiet area?”
  - “Shall we start with question one or question two?”
- “Are you going to tidy the book corner on your own or do you want some help?”

Giving the child a ‘win – win’ choice

Take Up Time

Give a clear instruction then walk away

This sometimes works well with the ‘Thank you, Not Please’

It gives the pupil time to comply.

Confidently give the instruction, turn and walk away (or give your attention to other pupils)—with the expectation that the pupil will comply.

Ear-shotting

Speaking aloud within the child’s ear shot

This technique can be used in a variety of ways. The adult speaks out loud to another adult in the room within the child’s ear shot.

[Child reluctant to start task]. “Mr W, Zac has worked

Don't say Don't

Frame instruction positively

Don't give the child ideas by telling them what you don't want them to do!

Try this especially when restating rules:

*“Walk in the corridor, thank you”
rather than “Don't run!”*

[Lining up for assembly] “In our class, we stand in line without touching our friends”

[Children calling out] “In our class, we put our hands up and wait”

Proximity Praise

Find someone nearby (anyone!) who is complying

[You are waiting for the class to settle. Natasha is talking. Next to her, Matthew is sat patiently waiting.]

“That’s really quiet sitting Matthew. Thank you!”

Don't Lose Face

The “Ask Permission Before Doing”

With impulsive children it can be hard, initially, to stop them doing the things they want to do.

In these situations, e.g. when Emma goes to run off to collect the fruit from the office before asking, it may be worth trialling this strategy.

“Emma. Back to the carpet. Hand up. Ask first ... Thanks”

When Emma asks permission, the adult says, “Yes, thanks for asking”.

Initially (where appropriate) try to say yes as much as possible so that Emma gets used to the idea that asking permission gets her what she

The Bogus Note

The Ultimate Distraction Technique

[Brandon is becoming unsettled. You can see his behaviour is beginning to escalate. You think a little wander may do him good!]

“Brandon, can you take this note to Mrs Shears please?”

Another technique can be giving a child 3 pens to deliver to another adult. The 3 pens will tell the other adult this is being used as a distraction and reply accordingly to the child.

Used sparingly, these strategies can be very effective. Use for those times when the child's behaviour is rumbling. If you get in early, this can
